“Powerful, unctuous and elegant: A unique version of the Verdejo grape, made only in exceptional vintages”

This wine comes from the vineyard Las Comas, hence its name. Bush vineyards planted in 1910 on limestone and stony soils, what has contributed to a unique and very particular version of the Verdejo grape from Rueda.

Made only in exceptional vintages

Finca Las Comas is a powerful and unctuous wine, aged in oak foudres. It shows outstanding elegance and full body. As strong points: hints of aromatic herbs, fennel and subtle nuances of citrus fruit.

Vineyard

Grape comes from traditional organic bush vineyards with a total surface area of 2.43 hectares located in the village of La Seca, on limestone and pebbly soils. These grapes are collected by hand in 20 kilos plastic boxes, what allows a first selection in the field.

Winemaking process

After a second selection process on sorting tables, one by one, grape is cold macerated for 12 hours. The wine ferments and ages with its own lees in 2250-liter foudres for 12 months.

Vintage

The year 2022 was defined by a hot summer in which vines suffered the effects of a severe drought. The successive heat waves caused temperatures to soar. As a result, the grapes stopped ripening in August. Patience and waiting until September, when the rains came and temperatures moderated, allowed for slow phenolic ripening, with suitable acidity levels. The lack of water during the summer meant that the grapes arrived at the winery in perfect sanitary conditions and the resulting musts of high quality.

Tasting

Brilliant, clean, gold colour. Complex nose and aromatic intensity are backed with scrub herbs, fennel and subtle citrus fruit nuances. In the mouth this Verdejo feels full, powerful, and greasy, showing a singular elegance. Delicate balance, deep expression, nice and open finish with an anise hint. Full body backed with good acidity and unusual salinity that appears again in the aftertaste.

Food pairing

Finca las Comas combines perfectly with all type of smoked food, fish-based dishes, shellfish, rice, semi-cured cheese and cold meat.
